

NMSU-RISE MEDICINAL PLANTS OF THE SOUTHWEST PROGRAM

Application Summer Workshop 2009 DUE April 17, 2009

A complete application includes: this form, the 500 – 1000 word statement (see below) and an up-to-date unofficial transcript of academic work. Mail to: Dr. Mary O'Connell, New Mexico State University, P.O. Box 30003 MSC3Q, Las Cruces, NM 88003; hand delivery to: Gerald Thomas Hall room 179; FAX (575) 646-4681; email to: moconnel@nmsu.edu

Last Name	First Name	MI	Social Security No.	Date of Birth
			Banner ID #
Current Mailing Address				Current Phone No.
Permanent Mailing Address				Permanent Phone No.

Email:	Gender: M F	Race/Ethnicity (optional*)
	US Citizen/permanent resident: Y / N

Academic Major:	Academic Minor:	Academic Rank Fall 2009 : (Fr., Soph., Jr., Sr.)
Cumulative GPA:	Cumulative Hours:	Cumulative Hours in Science:
Highest degree toward which you are now working:		Field of current, main interest:
How did you learn about the MPSW Project:		Are you currently employed at NMSU? Y / N

Please provide three references on your academic activities

Name:	Phone No.	Address: or email:
Name:	Phone No.	Address or email:
Name:	Phone No.	Address or email:

* Race/ethnicity is used for reporting purposes to the program's funding source, the National Institutes of Health
MPSW summer workshop contingent upon availability of funds from NIH

Additional application forms can be obtained from our website <http://medplant.nmsu.edu/>, RISE Program office in Foster Hall, Room 369 or from the Medicinal Plants director Dr. O'Connell in Gerald Thomas, Room 179.

Please write a typed personal statement (approximately 500 to 1000 words) addressing the following points: your educational aspirations, your previous employment history (paid and non-paid experiences); your experience with or interest in medicinal plants; your interest or experience in ethnic minority issues or health disparities; in biomedical research. Finally describe what you hope to achieve by participation in the workshop.